

Consumer information: Nissin Foods GmbH precautionary recalls the product "DEMAE RAMEN SPICY"

Eschborn, February 21st, 2020: For the purpose of preventive consumer protection Nissin Foods GmbH recalls the product DEMAE RAMEN „SPICY“-flavour with following batches and best before dates (BBD): Batch „L908594“ with BBD 12.2020 and batch „L000623“ with BBD 01.2021. This information can be easily recognized on the back of the bag (these data are in the white field below the barcode, see picture).

Other best before dates, batches or products of Nissin Foods GmbH are not affected.

Reason for the recall: This recall is purely precautionary, as it cannot be ruled out that individual products contain a wrong seasoning sachet containing the allergen milk. The allergen indication is not visible on the packaging. Consuming this product could be harmful to people who are allergic to milk. They are asked not to consume the product.

Consumers, who have purchased respective products, can return them to their shops. The purchase price will of course be refunded, even without presenting the receipt.

The quality and safety of our products always have the highest priority for us. We regret the incident and apologize to all customers for any inconvenience caused.

The customer service of Nissin Foods GmbH is available for any inquiries by calling the 0049 6196-78596-51 (Monday to Friday, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.) or by emailing to contact.de@nissin.com.
